ON THE ROAD To The Title

Round 17 sees all six games being played on Sunday, so ground-hoppers will be disappointed. There are however some cracking games to choose from, and as usual Super Soccer takes a look at them in an attempt to put right its shocking tipping record!

Bonnyrigg White Eagles v Sutherland Sharks

If ever a home win seemed a banker this must be the one. Bonnyrigg look to be making a repeat of last year's fight with Blacktown, and their 3-1 win at Macarthur last up will see them full of confidence.

Sutherland were poor against Ryde City last week and are desperate for the points. Their only consolation is that while they are losing so are the Central Coast and Eastern Suburbs - a situation the Sharks cannot be relying on.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Home win.

Bankstown City Lions v Macarthur Rams

The last team Macarthur will want to face after another home defeat is Bankstown at Jensen Park. The Lions are no listener to reputations and if they decide to perform could cause the Rams a number of problems. Striker Mendo Lovevski joined Zoki Adioski at the top of the Lions goalscorers charts with seven last week, and he will be looking to add to that tally here.

The Rams suffered a blow against the White Eagles, and will know the importance of victory here. Its a good time for Michael Brooks to fire, while Eric Williams will undoubtedly continue his fine season with another consistent performance.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - A draw

Fairfield Bulls v Eastern Suburbs

A good point for Fairfield at Melita Stadium sees them entertain Joe Watson's old club Eastern Suburbs at Nineveh Field. In their match at Wentworth Park earlier in the season the Bulls' Matthew Borg and Mark Hoenselaars absolutely destroyed the Wanderers defence, and the same could happen here.

Eastern Suburbs are bottom and will not be relishing this clash at all. A gutsy performance against Bankstown still saw them come away pointless, and its going to be hard here against the Bulls. With Ryde and Central Coast playing each other as well the Wanderers know that one of their bottom four rivals will be picking up the points.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Fairfield Bulls

Parramatta Eagles v Canterbury Marrickville

One point from their last two games is poor for the Eagles, but the chance to play one of their top 5 - aspirant rivals should bring the best out of Roberto Viera's team. Their imposing home record should see them through, but any team that loses 7-0 like Canterbury last week is not going to let the same happen again.

7-0. The biggest score in Super League this year is not a record that will sit well with the Berries, and their recent good form may have been blown away by this result. A win here will see them back on track but it will be hard against the Eagles at Melita Stadium.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Parramatta

Ryde City v Central Coast

Two of the bottom four play at Wentworth Park here, and the Gunners fans will be hoping that last weeks good win over the Sutherland Sharks can be repeated. We have continually stated the obvious about Ryde all season, a good defence and midfield but without punch up front means it was always going to be a tough season. Last time around the Gunners went to Pluim Park and won 2-1 courtesy of Scott Ollerenshaw - he's no longer with the club though so someone else will have to stand up and do the job.

The Coasties have picked up after a dreadful run, and their performances in the last three games have been much improved. A good chance of a win here but like Ryde they need to score goals, so the pointers are for a low scoring game. When that is the case sometimes you get a high-scoring thriller - the fans if not the coaches will be hoping for just that!

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Ryde City

Leichhardt Tigers v Blacktown City Demons

Super Soccer's featured game from next week, and what a cracker this should be! The Tigers are in rare form and looking good, and their defence will surely be tested against the Demons. Steve Karavatakis continues to grab the headlines and he will be a watched man, but maybe giving room to some of his less-known teammates?

The Demons hit seven last up and would have been expecting a tough game against Canterbury, so they will not be taking the Tigers easily here. Lambert Park is a tough place to get a result and they will have to battle for every loose ball. Its a tough one to predict but we can see both teams picking up a point in what will be a cracker - and being happy with that point!

SUPER SOCCER TIP - A draw

Round 16 review

Parramatta Eagles 1 Fairfield Bulls 1

Mark Fowler was at Melita Stadium

Plenty of endeavour, commitment and effort by both teams, but the lack of that quality final ball meant both Parramatta and Fairfield had to be satisified with a point each at Melita Stadium on a sunny Sunday afternoon.

With both teams looking to make the top five it was probably the Bulls who came away happier after picking up their point - a feat not many teams have managed at Melita Stadium this season!

The game started at a good pace with Tom Haythornthwaite, back at the Eagles after playing in the NSL with Newcastle Breakers, had a shot from the edge of the penalty area saved at the second attempt by Dragon Pupovac.

Both teams then dug in as each tackle was keenly contested, but the next real effort on goal didn't come until the 28 minute, Haythornthwaite again denied by Pupovac.

Five minutes later another shot was parried by the big Fairfield goalkeeper - the resulting loose ball being smashed over the bar. In what always looked like being a close game Parramatta just about had the edge, although the Bulls were giving little away, until the 38th minute.

A ball knocked into the penalty area saw a real scramble, with big Eagles defender Mark Reveley knocking in his first goal of the season with either his knee or thigh. Coach Roberto Viera after the game wasn't sure - but didn't really care!

A substitution on 41 minutes for the Bulls saw Robbie Grubba go off and Martin Driene come on, and within 30 seconds it was 1-1. A superb finish by Mark Hoenselaars with the outside of his left foot was a delight to watch, but the run that set the goal up by former Parramatta junior Jason Falzon was just as good. It was no wonder while half the players ran to the goalscorer, the other half mobbed Falzon.

Six minutes after the break Matthew Borg, who had an off game but still could have scored a couple, was denied on two occasions by Parramatta's Jason Holmes. Holmes was out quickly to block Borg's first effort, and was just as quick to get his body behind the rebound.

Ten minutes later a Parramatta free kick somehow left Adam Anderson in space inside the area, but the young striker was unable to direct his free header goalwards.

On 64 minutes a repeat situation of the Borg and Holmes show happened, with the same result. Once again the big goalkeeper was out quickly off his line, and he smothered the 12 goal strikers effort.

As the game wore on it seemed that while Parramatta had the majority of the possession it was Fairfield who had the better chances, although Haythornthwaite had a couple more efforts saved by Pupovac.

After 84 minutes came a golden opportunity for the Eagles. A through ball saw Pupovac slow to come off his line, and when he did he was beaten to the ball by Grant Bard. The ex-Sutherland striker chipped the on-rushing goalkeeper, only to see the ball kicked away by Driene who was running back to defend.

After the game Parramatta's Viera was happy with his team's commitment, after critiscising that very aspect of their game last week, but felt a couple of his players had tuned off at points in the game. However, he felt the result was a fair one, especially as his side showed a number of changes since earlier in the season.

The Bulls once again looked every inch a Super League club, and their midfield of Falzon and Michael Reda, another ex-Parramatta player, looked very solid. Surprisingly long balls seemed to cause some alarm for the Bulls in their penalty area, although most were cleared eventually, while sweeper George Zabetakis once again showed his class.

A fair result but both teams will realise that with that bit of quality on the final ball it could have been all three points - which with Canterbury losing and Leichhardt winning would have been very handy.

A word too for young Ballamondou Conde in Parramatta's midfield - full of running and with good vision, coach Viera will be looking forward to seeing both him and 'Charlie' Boskovski in his midfield.

Central Coast 1
Leichhardt Tigers 2

Leichhardt's Steve Karavatakis once again proved his worth when he struck the Tigers winner at Pluim Park with just a minute or so remaining on the clock.

After being shackled all game by young Coasties defender Dane Hokin, a last minute scramble in the defence saw a clearance hit against Karavatakis which bounced into the net.

The Tigers started the game well and after Chris Lansdown had come close twice in the first eight minutes, Vince Savocca strode forward and made it 1-0 to the visitors after just nine minutes.

The Tigers continued to press but were unable to add a second, thwarted by some good defence, then in the second period the Coasties slowly started to get back into the game.

Parramatta's young striker Adam Anderson (white) runs forward with the ball

Frank Mikuletic in Leichhardt's goal had had a quiet night, but was pressed into action with saves from Clint Smith and Peter Preston. He, and indeed any goalkeeper though, was unable to stop Smith a second time after 69 minutes. A run by Preston saw the ball crossed to Smith, who smacked the ball home from the edge of the penalty area.

The Coasties pushed forward but with a draw looking inevitable, up stepped Karavatakis - with a little help!

Coasties coach Allan Bourke said after the game, "The result was an injustice but for the third week in a row we have performed creditably against the competition's top teams."

Macarthur Rams 1
Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3

Second played third on Saturday night in front of another large home crowd at Lynwood Park - but it was the away fans who were celebrating at the end of the game.

A good opening to the game saw both teams have efforts from distance, but when the first real effort inside the penalty area happened, it resulted in a goal.

Bonnyrigg's Robbie Gomez was the man who got it, getting clear inside the area to make it 1-0 with his tenth of the season.

A minute later Super League leading scorer Colin Luff went off to be replaced by Javier Mancino, but the disruption to Bonnyrigg proved minimal as just four minutes after that James Warburton made it 2-0 as he put away the loose ball from a corner.

Macarthur tried to find a way through in the first half to reduce the defecit, but Bonnyrigg made it 3-0 soon after the break. On 52 minutes John Crawley denied Gomez, but a minute later Ray Younis was put through, and he beat Crawley comfortably.

Martin Bourke, again one of Macarthur's best, scored a rare goal on the hour mark to get his team back in it. Eric Williams' cross was turned into Bourke's path by Michael Brooks, and Bourke made no mistake from 20 metres out.

The Rams really looked like getting back into the game when first Rastall fired over from close range, then had a shot cleared off the line, before the midfielder was given a great chance to make it 3-2. Ben Green fouled Michael Brooks in the penalty area, but Rastall's penalty was fired wide with five minutes to go, ending any chance of a Macarthur come-back.

Macarthur were unable to cope with the width of Bonnyrigg, who were able to frequently get behind their defence, especially with Younis and Gomez, and the win means Bonnyrigg move three points clear of their opponents.

Blacktown City Demons 7 Canterbury Marrickville 0

Super League saw its biggest victory of the season as Blacktown City Demons took on the Canterbury Marrickville Berries. All pointers suggested a close game, pointers that were blown away very quickly when Damien Smith scored after two minutes. It become a procession as Damien Brown scored his first of two after 9 minutes, then Jason Bennett did likewise after 31 minutes.

Jon Angelucci made it 5-0 before the break after a 36th minute penalty and another goal just two minutes later, then Bennett and Smith each scored their teams sixth and seventh after 53 and 66 minutes respectively.

While the loss against the competition's front runners is certainly no disgrace, the scoreline embarassed the Berries, who slipped down after Bankstown City beat Eastern Suburbs. Canterbury Marrickville were reduced to 10 men early in the game in their defence, but with an away game at Lambert Park this week may now end up struggling to make the top five.

Eastern Suburbs 2 Bankstown City Lions 3

Bankstown City earned another three points after defeating Eastern Suburbs 3-2 at Jensen Park.

Parramatta's Jason Holmes (grounded) saves well.

It was far from the walk-over they may have expected against the bottom club however, as the Wanderers started off brightly after Nabil Codmani had a good effort for the Lions after 13 minutes.

Three minutes later a great save by Bansktown's Zlatke Josveski denied Eastern Suburbs, then four minutes later it was Bankstown who again came under pressure, their defence clearing the danger.

The Wanderers were rewarded for their endeavour though after 24 minutes, as striker Mark Beldham scored his second of the season to make it 1-0 to Eastern Suburbs.

It could have been even better for the Wanderers as well, debutant Brian Raeburn firing over the bar after a corner.

On 37 minutes the Lions' Mendo Lozevski tried to grab an equaliser after a great pass by Stewart Van Bentum, but although denied on that occasion just seven minutes later big defender Damien Luksic scored to make it 1-1 with his third of the season.

A big failing of the Eastern Suburbs side this year has been conceding goals just before and after half time, and while Damien Luksic's goal high-lighted that point, five minutes after the break it was really brought home by Codmani, who made it 2-1 to the Lions.

Three minutes later came a real turning point in the game, as Naoki Imaya put the ball in the back of the net after good work by Mark Beldham. As the teams ran back to the centre-circle the referee noticed his assistant standing with his flag across his chest, and the 'goal' was disallowed for offside.

That would have made it 2-2, and on 61 minutes it got even worse for Eastern Suburbs, Mendo Lozevski scoring to make it 3-1.

That two goal cushion meant it was always going to be tough for the bottom club to come back, although with nine minutes to go Steve Lawrence came close, then two minutes later Patrick Darvill scored for Eastern Suburbs after a shot rebounded off Damien Luksic.

There was to be no late heroics for Eastern Suburbs however, and they now seem locked in with a fight with Sutherland and Central Coast after Ryde's victory.

Bankstown are now just two points off Fairfield in fifth spot but their inconsistent approach is shown in their record so far - won 8 and lost 7 out of their 16 games.

Ryde City 3
Sutherland Sharks 0

Peter Smith was at Wentworth Park

In their own 'league' in the bottom four along with Eastern Suburbs and Central Coast, it was the Ryde City Gunners who came away with a deserved three points against a shot-shy Sutherland side still desperately missing Scot Levi Stephen.

An even first half gave no clue of what was to come as Adam Peatey, after some great work by the subject of this week's Player Poster, Jeff Kelly, rounded the goalkeeper to make it 1-0 with his first ever goal for Ryde.

Just four minutes later Aydin Cetinay capitalised on some great work by Dave Segreto down the left hand flank, and Cetinay made it 2-0 with an adroit flick.

Four minutes later Cetinay blasted wide from 8 metres out, and half time came without the Sharks having a note-worthy effort on goal.

Coach John Lavin made two substitutions at half-time, with one of those being the 'youngster' Stewart Porter, the current Under 21 coach, who made his come-back to senior football.

On 54 minutes came Sutherland's first real effort on goal, Malcolm Bideau firing just over from distance, but on 73 minutes it was Kelly who came close for Ryde, his effort being cleared off the line after rounding the goalkeeper.

On 76 minutes Ryde's Les Bihari ensured his sheet was kept clean with an acrobatic save, then the game was sealed by the imposing figure of Andre Glucina, who after being put through by the out-standing Craig Sharpley rounded the goalkeeper and made it a comfortable 3-0 win for the home side.

Guest Column by Brad Maloney

Well, that was the season, that was. Marconi's defeat in Perth means that I can indulge in a spot of quiet reflection on what is now for me, the close season.

In Sydney at least, much of the pre season publicity was centred around the 'new kids on the block.'

Northern Spirit came on the scene to much fanfare, and I guess many people were perhaps a little wary of the promotional hype that surrounded their entry into the national competition, given that we had witnessed a similar thing a couple of years earlier when the now defunct Collingwood burst on the scene, only to disappear just as quickly.

Any concerns about the viability of the Spirit were quickly laid to rest though, as a result of the excellent crowds coming through the turnstiles, and their promotion of the game has helped attract a new spectator base.

It was no less of a successful story at one of the league's older clubs. Sydney United defied everyone with a backs to the wall performance which saw them take out the Minor Premiership.

Their financial troubles have been well documented, but with the bailiffs knocking on their door, and at times uncertainty over whether they would actually be playing the following week, to finish ahead of the pack is an amazing achievement, and speaks volumes for the spirit within the club.

And while on the subject of spirit within a club, I really must mention my own club, Marconi.

I have lost count of the number of times I picked up a newspaper during the season only to read that "Marconi's top six hopes must now be over!"

Some were writing our semi final hopes off from around the end of 'Black January" when we failed to record a single victory in six games that month, and plummeted from 3rd to 9th position.

What they failed to take into account however, was the horrendous injury toll we suffered during that time.

During the middle part of the season Marconi's treatment room resembled a scene from the television show ER, as player after player hobbled in to be patched up.

We always knew that once we were capable of fielding a settled side we would climb the ladder and so it turned out, with the Stallions winning the final 5 competition games to finish the season in 4th place.

Now I guess its time for me to put the feet up and improve my golf handicap, but luckily there will still be a bit of footballing action too.

A few season ago I played as a guest player with Canterbury Marrickville, and I usually manage to find the time to roll up to a few of their games.

I also have an involvement with Marconi's under 15 junior team, where I stood in as coach for a while when their regular coach was over in France for the World Cup. I pop down for a lot of their games, and I really enjoy being involved with the boys.

Some may view Ericsson Cup players as simply 'doing a job,' but I know many players like myself who just love getting involved at the grass roots level, and it really is great to see the kids play with so much passion and enthusiasm.

I guess we are all just football fans at heart, and I'll be one of those fans at the Olympic Stadium cheering on the Socceroos against the FIFA All Stars next month.

It has all the makings of a great match, and should be an excellent promotion for our game as a whole.

A month later and the television cameras will be focussed on us again when the Socceroos take on the mighty Manchester United, and I'm really looking forward to that one.

Way back in 1989 I spent a couple of months actually training with Manchester United.

It was arranged by the "Big Brother Movement," the same people who were instrumental in Harry Kewell's move to Leeds United.

When I was at Old Trafford I would train alongside players like Bryan Robson, Mark Hughes, Garry Pallister and Paul Ince, and it was a fantastic experience.

Alex Ferguson was in charge then, as he is now, and it will be interesting to see if he still remembers me!

My season may have just finished in the Ericsson Cup, but as you can see, for a football junkie like me, there is enough to keep me occupied until next year's kick off!

See you at a game....

NSW EXPORTS IN THE NEWS

Two of the best-known overseas Australian (and NSW) players were in the headlines again this week: Aston Villa goal keeper, Mark Bosnich, and Leeds' Harry Kewell.

Both products of the NSW football system, Bosnich and Kewell are highly sought-after playing commodities in the UK and elsewhere.

Despite a pretend flirtation with Juventus and other European clubs, Kewell pledged his allegiance for a few more years to Leeds during the week when he signed a new deal with them. The Carling Premier League web site reports the following:

"Kewell is to join the 20,000 pounds sterling-per-week brigade at Elland Road, alongside the likes of skipper Lucas Radebe, 'keeper Nigel Martyn and mid-fielder David Batty.

The move ends speculation Kewell was due to quit Leeds and sign a lucrative contract with an Italian or Spanish giant, with Juventus believed to have been heading the queue with a 15million pounds sterling offer.

But the 20-year-old outstanding young forward is to pledge his future to Leeds as manager David O'Leary looks to challenge the dominance of Manchester United and Arsenal over the next few years and beyond.

The skilful product of the New South Wales Soccer Academy has wowed crowds and pundits alike this season with his talent, scoring nine goals. "

The amount of money being paid to Kewell will make it even more difficult to prise him away from 'Fortress Leeds' for matches with the Socceroos or Olyroos. Harry said himself a few weeks ago in an interview on the Seven Network's 'Sportsworld' program that there has to be "give and take" between club and country - a point made many times by current and past generations of overseas Australian players.

Bosnich was more straightforward on the weekend when he said, again on 'Sportsworld', that he queried whether he ought to be considered for the Sydney 2000 Olympics, as one of the three over-age players allowed under the competition rules. He told Bruce McAvaney that he had "already played at an Olympics" (Barcelona in 1992) and if he did not play, it would give younger goal keepers the same opportunity he had to showcase their talents on the world stage.

Bosnich is acknowledged as one of the finest goal keepers in the world. He can't get a game at Aston Villa at the moment because manager, John Gregory, doesn't want to use someone he considers to be "uncommitted to Aston Villa".

Bosnich is widely tipped to fill Peter Schmeicel's boots at Manchester United, and some have speculated that Bosnich will be reluctant to leave Man United (and his weekly salary) for the 2000 Olympics preparation and games.

Bozza's perspective is no doubt from the point-of-view that the Olympics is not the pinnacle of world football. As we devoted football fans know, this mantle belongs fairly and squarely to the World Cup - which is, in fact, the world's single biggest sporting event - and his desire to play for Australia in the World Cup remains undiminished.

For many in the international football world, however, the Olympics is an opportunity to identify emerging talent.

So while Bozza's reasons for making way for others to take his place in the Olympics are not unreasonable, he has perhaps failed to acknowledge two key points in the Australian context.

First, even though, in the football world, the Olympics is secondary to the World Cup, it is very important to Australia and Australians and particularly the legions of people who are not committed fans of our code.

Many non-football people will not understand Bosnich not wanting to play for his country in the biggest sporting event ever to be staged here and in his home town of Sydney.

Second, because the Olympic Games is an opportunity to show Australia just how big and exciting the world game is, it's important that we have our best. While we have many other fine goal keepers, such as NSW's Mark Schwarzer (Middlesborough) and John Filan (Blackburn) and Under 23 player, Danny Milosevic (Perth Glory), Bosnich is both a leader and at the top of his tree - and the Olyroos will be the poorer without him.

It is to be hoped that the significance of the Olympics to the future development of the code downunder, and the importance of Bosnich's participation, will be highlighted to him when he returns home for the Socceroos V. FIFA All Stars match to be held in June.

ROUND ELEVEN SUMMARY

MANLY BEGIN BUSY FORTNIGHT WITH WIN AT AUBURN

SAINTS SEE OFF CHALLENGE FROM PENRITH

Auburn played their weekend match under lights at Mona Park, a ground which has seen Waratah Cup games in the past, but viewing was not easy for spectators as the game was played in swirling winds and the lights appeared to shine on the pitch in unevenly distributed patches.

A previous committee had organised the game for 5 pm and the new regime elected not to change that arrangement after taking over soon after the start of the season.

They might think twice about that next time, as for the second occasion this season that they have staged a game under lights, they were beaten 4-0.

True, their regular keeper (and president) Haydar Arslan was absent, suspended, and their main strike weapon, Huseyin Bayhan had also been red carded out of this and the next match, following his second suspension of a brief season with the club this year so far.

But, a larger (and warmer) crowd might have given the locals a better level of support as they tried to contain the defensive organisation and speed of the visiting Dolphins.

Andy Townsend provided the pass that saw Damien Rosenthal march through the heart of the Auburn defence in the 7th minute to open the scoring for the Dolphins.

Auburn then began to get right on top after this early setback and spent most of the first half in Manly territory.

Unal Ogmen was brought down on the edge of the box in the 9th minute by Kelvin Foster, but despite pleas from Auburn that their player had been fouled inside the area, visiting Canberra referee, Ben Wilson, would have none of it.

Foster hobbled off soon afterwards, but the free kick proved of no value to Auburn as Ogmen could only lift the ball over the bar. Also shots were cleared off the Manly line early in the half as the home team threatened constantly.

Manly got back on track in the second half, adding to their slender lead after just two minutes when a long range shot by Danny Barbalace caught stand-in keeper Ben Aksoy flat footed, the big midfielder's shot coming from a range of 30 yards.

Only another two minutes had passed when Rosenthal was able to give his marker the slip on the blind side and angle a neat shot in off the far post from his run down the left and into the area.

It was Auburn's turn to clear their lines in the latter stages, Mat Godwin's header looking set to beat Aksoy only for Deniz Keselik to head clear.

The same Manly player made a strong run down the left and squared the ball for Townsend who could only lift his shot over the bar from close range.

Barbalace scored his second from the game when his free kick from 30 yards deflected in off a defender in the last 15 minutes for a pleasing 4-0 win by the leaders.

The expected top clash between St George and Penrith Panthers resulted in a good 2-0 win by the home side who got their noses in front in the first half hour and held on comfortably, thanks to solid defence and some effective goalkeeping by Trinity Allen.

St George are going very well at home this season and the visiting Penrith Panthers, currently in second place, held no fears for them.

In the 4th minute Leo Carle hit a nice free kick goalwards and when Stefan Janic met it with a firm header it needed a hasty clearance off the line to deny the Saints a very early opener.

Penrith were doing plenty of attacking as well and it needed a smart save down low by Allen to prevent Alan Picken's firm drive getting through in the 12th after a corner on the left.

St George took the lead in the 17th when a well flighted corner from the left despatched by Marc Santarossa eluded the sentinels on the goal-line, instead finding Janic at the far post who headed home.

Janic was on hand at the other end to head off the line when an in-swinging Garth Tehliwec corner looked like going straight in.

Penrith then had a good chance through Danny Hinton in the 40th when a cross by Richard Astone was met with a good volley only for Allen again to come to his side's rescue.

Carle then smacked the crossbar with a shot from an awkward angle a minute later, but the good pressure from Saints saw them extend their lead on the stroke of half time.

Janic burst into the area and after skipping past one defender was confronted by Jon Grima whose challenge was not viewed kindly by referee Mark Hester, and Janic was able to put away the resultant spot kick for a 2-0 half time lead.

Saints could have gone on to dominate the game, but Alex Araujo, who had replaced the injured Giuseppe Serratore in only the 10th minute, brought down Ben Wright with a lunging tackle in the middle of the park and received his marching orders, leaving the home side short-handed for the rest of the game.

This came very early in the second half and it was not long after this that Penrith claimed that a St George player had handled a cross from Tehliwec, but the referee was not interested.

Penrith then had further opportunities, Picken again testing Allen in the 58th with a fierce shot from close range.

Janic had a free kick well collected by Penrith keeper Luke Martin in the 84th , but it was a rare scoring opportunity in the second period for the Saints who could have conceded a goal in the 85th when Daniel Lownds ran onto a through pass from Kaan Davies and let fly from 12 yards only for Allen to save down low.

Penrith were doing plenty of attacking as well and it needed a smart save down low by Allen to prevent Alan Picken's firm drive getting through in the 12th after a corner on the left.

Penrith had Bob Casserly, Tehliwec and Wright in good touch, while for Saints Simon Verrender was a welcomereturn presence in the side after a lay-off and player- coach Paul Carter was a re-assuring presence at the heart of the defence.

Stanmore bounced back to form with a tight 2-1 win over A C United at Arlington Oval.

Malcolm Adams put the Hawks in front in the 41st minute when he headed in a cross from player-coach Eddie Briscoe.

The goal cancelled out another header, this time from visitors A C who hit the lead in only the 8th minute when Marcello Ortiz arrived at the far post to meet a cross from the right.

The Stanmore winner came in the 50th when Briscoe sent Adams on his way and from the ball laid on by the Scotsman, Theo Katsaros was able to slot the winner home nicely.

Moorebank almost managed their second win in as many weeks when leading Dulwich Hill 1-0 up to the period of stoppage time, but the visitors snatched a late equaliser.

Rockdale Suns defeated Illawarra Lions 3-0 at the Rockdale Soccer Centre on Sunday, Goce Trposki again in good touch with goals in the 3rd and 75th minutes, with Spase Najdoski getting the other in the 35th to put plenty of pressure on their fellow Macedonian rivals from the South Coast.

On a cold, wet and extremely windy Saturday at Alex Lamberton Park in Bathurst the locals tackled Hurstville City Minotaurs and almost had nobody to play at all!

Traffic snarls on the mountain roads leading into the central western NSW city meant that reserve players were put on standby until the senior players arrived with half an hour to spare.

The game failed to reach any great heights as a spectacle with both sides resorting to long range shots which failed to trouble either keeper.

Tony Clancy and Scott Mutton both combined well, but they were frustrated by some solid defence which allowed them little space near to goal.

Mutton headed wide once in each half when well placed to score, while Matthew Baillie in the Bathurst goal had only a few opportunities to shine, but did look in good command when some shots in the latter stages were hit on target.

A draw, their fifth from ten outings, makes Bathurst the draw specialists, but more significantly their lack of goals must be of real concern. In those ten games they have found the net a mere eleven times, only bottom dogs Moorebank scoring fewer so far this term.

There are two Saturday games this weekend, Bathurst being hosts again, this time to Dulwich Hill who will hope to have strikers Alex dos Santos and Ivo de Jesus combining effectively in a newly struck partnership. If they fire at their first attempt then Bathurst could pay for it.

Goals have been hard to come by for Bathurst this season, while the Dulwich defence has been somewhat suspect this term. A home win is slightly favoured, however, given local conditions.

Minotaurs take on Penrith Panthers who do need another win to stay in touch with leaders Manly and should just get it.

Stanmore Hawks could find the visiting St George hard to beat at Arlington Oval, with former Ipswich Town and Sydney Olympic player Mark Brennan likely to make his debut in this game.

Auburn and AC United meet at Mona Park where Auburn have had mixed fortunes this season. They have lost twice there, heavily, but have also celebrated some good victories. An Auburn win is fancied, despite a disappointing showing last weekend.

Rockdale have to contend with Manly Warringah at the Soccer Centre and may find the Dolphins a little too hot to handle.

Illawarra Lions will expect to beat Moorebank at Ian McLennan Park, but an improving Moorebank may work hard enough here to earn another away win here as they are growing in confidence and have tightened their defence now.

Division two Review

ROUND TEN SUMMARY
GREYSTANES THUMP ARNCLIFFE AT WINDY SCOTS FIELD TOP TWO CONTENDERS BOTH WIN AND MOUNT DRUITT MOVE UP

When Sydney University turned up at Fraser Park, they knew it would be no easy task to unsettle the joint competition leaders and in much the same way that the home side had shaken University of NSW they scored two very early goals here too.

The first was an own goal in the opening few minutes and the second a good finish from close range by Jon Flack in the 18th. Substitute Don Brown missed a penalty for the students in the second half, but the sound defence of Fraser, with Charlie Morales outstanding, denied the potent strike force of Rob Smithies and later, Brown, any real openings.

Mt. Pritchard entertained leaders Hajduk Wanderers at Cook Park and did well to contain their near neighbours to just the one goal in the first half.

Peter Pecotic opened the scoring with a sweetly timed volley from out wide, after some loose defence by the Mounties back four.

Then in the 56th minute JJ Ellul made a solo run, scooting past 4 or 5 players, before hitting a fierce drive from the edge of the area to make it 2-0.

Mounties hit back in the 69th minute when some good passing between Greg Baldock, Frank Cosentino and Ian Stoddart led to Diego Dominguez slotting home a Mounties goal to give them some chance of salvaging at least a point, but when Ellul struck the crossbar in the 75th minute, there was substitute Paul Croci to head the ball past Matt Darwen to re-establish a two goal margin.

Mounties had not enjoyed the best of fortunes, their plight highlighted by a 71st minute shot from Anthony Vicaretti which rebounded off the post to Franco Cosentino, whose follow up effort bounced off the keeper for a harmless corner.

Some good attacking football was played by both teams on a good surface, but with an injury- hit Hajduk taking the points on this occasion 3-1 at the finish.

A very windy Saturday at Little Bay saw a well-disciplined Hurstville outclass the strugglers from Unit of NSW.

The first goal came from a great searching ball from Robert Harmat who found Ivan Maric, who then controlled the ball with the chest before slotting the ball past the Uni keeper. The second came five minutes before the break, the Hurstville man of the match, Steve Zoric, made a great run into the box and crossed to Maric who got the ball through a needle-eye-opening between three defenders.

The wind picked up further in the second half and the students found themselves firmly entrenched in their own half. Hurstville scored their third twenty minutes from time when good-midfield play led to a deserved strike by Zoric. Driving rain pelted the players for the last ten minutes of the match and the game deteriorated with the weather. Hurstville showed the form that has taken them into fourth spot with wins in six of their last seven matches and are looking an ominous threat to the leaders, one of whom, Fraser Park, they have already beaten.

Belmore recorded their first win since the opening day of the season when they defeated Hills United 2-1 at Blick Oval on Sunday. It was their first success since beating the strong Mount Druitt side by the same score at Arlington Oval.

They fell behind to a Tim Gledhill goal in the 12th minute, but new signing Leo Alexiou made all the difference, scoring twice with two solo runs, the first only moments before the break and the second 15 minutes from the end, which proved to be the winner.

Belmore had striker George Ganiatsas coming off injured and were also missing Sam Solidakis, so the win was hard earned against a Hills side that have done it tough themselves with injuries lately.

They were also due to back up two nights later at Fred Caterson against a back-to-form Greystanes.

The Stanes gave lie to their lowly position with a convincing 4-0 win at Arncliffe Scots, two goals coming in each half. Scott Cumming slotted home from close range in the 35th after a long ball had been pumped into the penalty area for him to chase and the defence failed to clear.

Gary Comerford's low cross in the 45th was then tucked away by the unattended Michael Grass.

A through ball from Johnny Kritanakis set up Andrew Cauchi to finish deftly and beat the keeper pointlessly in the 70th, while substitute Peter Nolan executed a similar finish to a ball laid on by Comerford in the 87th.

Arncliffe had Zlatko Nastevksi sent off towards the end, his red card following that of Brad Racker and Steve Vosevski who clashed in the 65th and were both dismissed.

Mount Druitt eased past Sydney District with a 4-0 win at Popondetta Park.

Micky Mohamed opened the scoring in the 19th and then Paul Graham scored the first of his two goals for the day in the 25th, later adding another in the 78th. Jon Van Waard got the third for the home side who have only been beaten twice this season and have already downed the joint leaders, Hajduk.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE

Round 13 Review

G13's

It was a busy week in Super Youth League, as in addition to a normal full program two re-arranged games were played from round 6.

Blacktown City Demons remain top after picking up another six points, as they smashed Manly Warringah 8-0 and also defeated Sydney United 3-0. It was a bad weekend for Manly Warringah all round, as they moved into the bottom three after also losing to Parramatta Eagles 1-0.

That win moved the Eagles into fourth spot, while in second Wollongong, 5-2 winners over Eastern Suburbs, and Newcastle, 5-1 winners over the Central Coast, try to keep up the pace with the Blacktown City Demons side.

Southern Districts are in fifth despite only picking up a point from their two games, losing 2-0 to the Southern Branch and drawing 1-1 with the Gladesville Hornsby Association. The association team also defeated Sutherland 1-0, while Leichhardt Tigers keep the pressure on after drawing 2-2 with Marconi Fairfield.

After six draws in eleven games Macarthur Rams finally picked up their first win of the season with a 1-0 victory over Sydney Olympic.

Southern Districts increased their lead a the top of the table with four points for the weekend, those points coming care of a 3-0 victory over the Southern Branch and a 1-1 draw with the Gladesville Hornsby Association in their re-arranged match. That proved to be the only point for the Association team as they also lost 3-2 to the Sutherland Sharks.

Sydney United slipped from second to fourth after losing 1-0 at home to Blacktown City Demons, whose win plus three points in a 3-2 victory over Manly Warringah Dolphins sees them move up the table.

The Dolphins were also beaten 2-0 by the Parramatta Eagles, who have five wins and five defeats from their eleven games.

Wollongong moved into second after their easy 6-0 win over Eastern Suburbs, and Sydney Olympic were the other club to move above Sydney United after defeating Macarthur Rams 2-0.

Marconi Fairfield had a ten point gap on their hosts Leichhardt Tigers going into round 13, but the Tigers made that look nonsense as they won 2-0.

Despite Manly Warringah's two defeats the Central Coast were unable to move off the bottom of the table as they went down 5-0 at Newcastle Breakers.

G15's

Blacktown City Demons have a seven point lead at the top of the table after picking up two wins from their two weekend games. Victories over Manly Warringah Dolphins, 2-0, and Sydney United, 4-1, sees the team from the Gabbie Stadium looking the team to beat in the Grade 15 competition.

Manly Warringah did get something from the weekend though, as they picked up a point in a 2-2 draw with Parramatta Eagles.

Marconi Fairfield were in second place at the start of the weekend and beat Leichhardt Tigers 2-1, but they still dropped to third after the Gladesville Hornsby Association played twice.

A victory for them over the Southern Districts was followed by a 1-1 draw at home to the Sutherland Sharks, a point which sees Gladesville Hornsby go above Marconi Fairfield into second place.

Macarthur Rams surprised Sydney Olympic with a 3-0 win a Lynwood Park, while the Newcastle Breakers and the Central Coast shared the points with a 1-1 draw.

Wollongong Wolves are in sixth after their easy 4-0 win over Eastern Suburbs, while despite their loss to Gladesville Hornsby Association, Southern Districts did enjoy a 4-0 victory over Southern Branch.

G16's

After 13 rounds its tight at the top as Sydney Olympic have a one point gap over the Leichhardt Tigers.

Both teams were made to fight for their victories on the weekend however, Olympic defeating the Macarthur Rams 1-0 and Leichhardt winning by the same score-line against Marconi Fairfield.

The Newcastle Breakers are third with a game in hand over the top two, but they suffered a shock 1-0 home defeat by the Central Coast.

Blacktown City picked up some useful points after drawing with Sydney United 0-0, as well as defeating Manly Warringah 2-1 in their round 6 re-arranged match.

That proved to be the second loss of the weekend for the Dolphins, who also lost 5-0 to the Parramatta Eagles, who sit in fifth place.

Wollongong in sixth defeated Eastern Suburbs 5-1, while the Gladesville Hornsby Association who come next surprisingly lost at home to the Sutherland Sharks 3-2. The Association team really missed out on a chance to move up to third as they also lost 2-1 to the Southern Districts in their round 6 re-arranged game.

In the days other game Southern Branch ensured the Southern Districts weren't going to add to those three points as the southern Branch claimed a 1-0 victory.

Division One Youth League

Round 11 review

G13's

Illawara Lions remain top of the table after beating Hills United 2-0, but St George, who were in second place going into the game, lost two matches on the weekend.

Defeats by AC United (2-0) and in a re-arranged match with Bankstown Association (5-1) saw St George miss a chance to go top.

It was a most profitable weekend for Bankstown Association though, as in addition to that win they also defeated the Rockdale City Suns 3-1, victories which sees them move to 23 points.

Hills United may have lost to Illawara but they beat Canterbury Marrickville 4-0, while the Berries also lost heavily to the Penrith Panthers, this time 7-1.

There was another big win as Ryde City beat Fairfield Bulls 9-0, and Stanmore Hawks picked up their third win of the season with a 1-0 victory over the Canterbury Association.

The days other game saw Blacktown Association defeat Bonnyrigg White Eagles 4-3, the Blacktown Association keeping the pressure up on the top three of Illawara, St George and AC United.

Leaders Ryde City continued on their merry way with a 3-0 victory over the Fairfield Bulls, and have now only lost one of their eleven games.

Bonnyrigg in second going into the game could only manage a draw with Blacktown Association 2-2, but third placed AC United went down 3-1 against St George. That victory for the St George side means they go above AC United, as they also defeated Bankstown Association 3-1, who lost their round 11 game 1-0 against Rockdale.

Hills United shot up the table after two wins on the weekend, a 4-1 victory over the Lions of Illawara was followed by a 5-0 victory over Canterbury Marrickville.

The Berries remain bottom after also losing 4-0 to the Penrith Panthers, while the other game in the round saw Canterbury Association draw 2-2 with the Stanmore Hawks.

G15's

Previous leaders AC United secured another win on the weekend, beating St George 2-0, but were still overtaken by second placed Hills United.

Hills defeated Illawara Lions 2-0, and also won 5-0 against Canterbury Marrickville in a re-arranged match. Canterbury Marrickville also lost to Penrith Panthers, 3-2, who remain in fourth place.

Third placed Ryde City beat Fairfield Bulls 3-0, while St George suffered their second 2-0 defeat in two days against Bankstown Association.

It was a weekend of maximum points for the Association side, as they also won 5-2 against the Rockdale City Suns, and there was a 1-1 draw between the Canterbury Association and Stanmore Hawks.

The days other game saw Bonnyrigg White Eagles remain in touch with the top teams after beating the Blacktown Association 3-2.

G16's

The Blacktown Association went down to only their third defeat of the season, 1-0 against Bonnyrigg White Eagles, but the big movers on the weekend were the Bankstown Association.

They defeated Rockdale City Suns 3-0, and in their re-arranged match also beat St George 2-1. Those six points means the Association move into the top of the table spot.

Bottom placed Canterbury Marrickville picked up only their second point of the season in a 0-0 draw with the Penrith Panthers, but the Berries did lose 2-1 to Hills United.

Illawara Lions beat Hills United 4-1, while Ryde City remain in the top few with a 3-1 victory over the Fairfield Bulls.

While Stanmore Hawks were beating Canterbury Association 1-0, AC United leap-frogged Blacktown Association with a good 2-1 victory over St George.

Division Two Youth League

Round 8 review

G13's

After Round 8 the top three teams remain the same. Ku-ring-gai Association kept up their one point lead over both the Nepean Association and Macquarie Sports after defeating CSI Schofields 5-1.

The Nepean Association themselves also had a comfortable win, 3-0 over Hajduk Wanderers, while it was much tougher for Macquarie Sports, who had a good 3-2 away win at Mt Druitt.

Every game in the division produced a positive result, so Mt Pritchard moved into fourth above Hajduk Wanderers after disposing of Hawkesbury City 3-0, a result which also enabled Moorebank Sports to move from second to third from bottom, above Hawkesbury, after beating Granville Association 2-1.

The day's other game saw Parramatta City still unable to collect their first point of the season, as they went down 2-0 away at the Camden Tigers.

G14's

Its also as you were in the G14's, as the top four remain the same. However, that could change in the next few weeks as most of the top teams were unable to win, so the teams in mid-table have closed the gap.

Top of the table Macquarie Sports missed a great chance to open up a little lead at the top, as they were held to a 0-0 draw at Mt Druitt Town. However, second placed CSI Schofields went down 2-1 at the Ku-ring-gai Association, while the third placed Nepean Association drew 1-1 with the fourth placed Hajduk Wanderers.

Those results meant a few teams in mid-table were able to make up some ground - as well as the Ku-ring-gai Association the Granville Association also won, 6-0 at Moorebank Sports, while Mt Pritchard drew 1-1 at Hawkesbury City.

At the bottom of the table Camden Tigers picked up their first win of the season, a 2-0 win over Parramatta City.

G15's

Leaders Hajduk Wanderers maintained their one point gap over Parramatta City with a 4-0 win over the Nepean Association. Parramatta themselves though enjoyed a 2-1 win at the Camden Tigers, while in third Mt Pritchard defeated Hawkesbury City 4-2.

With the Nepean Association's defeat the Ku-ring-gai Association moved into fourth with a 5-0 thumping of CSI Schofields, while Macquarie Sports and Moorebank Sports both enjoyed 1-0 victories over Mt Druitt Town and the Granville Association respectively.

G16's

The Nepean Association remain the team to beat after their 5-1 victory over Hajduk Wanderers, but Mt Druitt Town Rangers are keeping the pressure up, defeating Macquarie Sports 2-0 to remain within two points of the leaders. Hajduk Wanderers had been third going into their game with the Nepean Association, but slipped to fifth as Mt Pritchard, 3-0 winners at Hawkesbury City, and the Camden Tigers, 4-3 winners at Parramatta City, moved above them.

The Ku-ring-gai Association picked up a useful three points after defeating CSI Schofields 5-0, while the Granville Association were another to pick up maximum points, defeating Moorebank Sports 3-0.

Round 9 action

Cadet League Division One

Round 9 action

G11's

Sydney United remain top of the Grade 11 table after defeating Ryde City 3-1 at home, but the big movers are Canterbury Marrickville. The Berries picked up two wins during the week after playing St George in a round 7 re-scheduled match, winning that one 3-1 at St George Stadium, before thumping bottom club Parramatta City 9-0.

Those two wins mean Canterbury Marrickville are just one point behind Sydney United, and both teams have a large gap over the rest of the league.

In third are St George, who not only lost their game against the Berries but also lost to Leichhardt Tigers 1-0 at home, their first two defeats of the season.

The two teams in fourth and fifth also won, Macarthur Rams beating Bonnyrigg White Eagles 2-1 and Marconi Fairfield putting eight without reply past Eastern Suburbs.

G12's

Like their Grade 11's side, Sydney United sit on top of the table, the Grade 12's collecting another three points in beating Ryde City 4-0. With Parramatta Eagles having the bye this week they slipped from second to fourth as St George enjoyed a six point week - beating Canterbury Marrickville 8-0 in their re-scheduled round 7 clash and then beating Leichhardt Tigers 2-1.

Canterbury Marrickville themselves though did manage to secure one point from their double weekend, drawing 0-0 with Parramatta City - Parramatta City's first point of the season.

The day's other game saw Marconi Fairfield defeat Eastern Suburbs 4-1 to also leap-frog Parramatta Eagles.

Cadet League Division Two

Round 11 action

G11's

The top three in the Grade 11's all stayed the same after Round 11 action last weekend. Illawara Lions were unable to stretch their lead as they were the team with the bye, so both the Penrith Panthers and Hills United took full advantage.

The Panthers secured three points courtesy of a tight 2-1 victory over CSI Schofields, while Hills were too strong for Moorebank Sports, winning 4-0 away from home.

The Stanmore Hawks dropped to sixth from fourth after losing 1-0 to AC United, who took fifth spot, while Macquarie Sports went into fourth with a 2-0 win over Mt Pritchard in a re-arranged match on the Saturday, and a 5-1 victory over Hawkesbury City.

Mt Druitt Town are still pointless after their ten games and went down 5-0 to Hurstville City, while Hajduk Wanderers secured a 2-0 win at Mt Prithard.

G12's

Like the Grade 12's the top three all stayed the same in this league, with Stanmore Hawks, Hills United and Penrith Panthers being one, two and three respectively.

The Hawks enjoyed a tough 1-0 win over AC United who dropped from fourth to fifth because of the result, while Hills United remain second despite a 0-0 draw at Moorebank Sports. Penrith in third were unable to capitalise too much though, as they could only draw 1-1 at CSI Schofields.

Macquarie Sports picked up two wins and 10 goals in their two games, disposing of Mt Pritchard 7-0 and Hawkesbury City 3-0, while Hurstville City Minotaurs picked up their first point of the season in a thrilling 3-3 draw away at Mt Druitt.

The days other game saw Hajduk Wanderers too good for Mt Pritchard, as they won 3-0 at Cook Park.
